

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF PUERTO RICO

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

MANUEL COLLAZO-HERNANDEZ,

Defendant.

CRIMINAL NO. 14-664 (GAG)

REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION

Defendant Manuel Collazo-Hernández was charged in a one count Indictment and he agreed to plead guilty to Count One of the Indictment. Count One charges Defendant with Prohibited Person in Possession of a Firearm: Convicted Felon, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 922(g)(1).

On January 4, 2017, Defendant appeared before this Magistrate Judge, since the Rule 11 hearing was referred by the Court. Defendant was provided with a Waiver of Right to Trial by Jury, which he signed and agreed upon voluntarily after examination in open court, under oath.

Defendant indicated and confirmed his intention to plead guilty to Count One of the Indictment, upon being advised of his right to have said proceedings before a district judge of this court.¹ Upon verifying through Defendant's statement his age, education and any relevant aspect as to the use of medication, drugs, alcohol or substance dependency, and psychological or psychiatric condition, to ascertain his capacity and ability to understand, answer and comprehend the interactive colloquy with this Magistrate Judge, a determination was made as to Defendant's competency and ability to understand the proceedings.

Having further advised Defendant of the charges contained in above stated Count One, he was examined and verified as being correct that he had consulted with his counsel Ernesto Vázquez-Milán, prior to the hearing for change of plea, that he was satisfied with the services provided by his legal representative and had time to discuss with him all aspects of the case, insofar, among other things, regarding the change of plea, the consent to proceed before a United States Magistrate Judge, the content of the Indictment and the charges therein, his constitutional rights and the consequences of the waiver of same.

Defendant was specifically apprised by this Magistrate Judge that, upon withdrawing his initial plea of not guilty and now entering a plea of guilty to the charge specified, he was waiving his right to a public, speedy, and a trial by jury constituted by twelve jurors who have to unanimously agree to a verdict. He was also waiving his right to be presumed innocent and for the Government to meet the obligation of establishing his guilt beyond a reasonable doubt. Furthermore, he was waiving his right during said trial to confront the witnesses who were to testify against him and be able to cross-examine them, through counsel at said trial, as well as present evidence on his behalf. He was also waiving the right to compel the attendance of witnesses and that subpoenas be issued to have them appear in court to testify. Defendant was specifically apprised of his right to take the stand and testify, if he so decided, or not to testify, and no inference or decision as to his guilt could be made from the fact, if he decides not to testify. Defendant was also explained his right not to incriminate himself; that upon such a waiver of all above-discussed rights a judgment of guilty and his sentence were to be based on his plea of guilty, and he would be sentenced by the judge after considering the information contained in a pre-sentence report.

As to all the above, Defendant provided an individualized and positive acknowledgment of each and every waiver and, with the assistance of his counsel, indicated he freely and voluntarily waived those rights and understood the consequences. During all this colloquy, Defendant was made aware that he could freely request from this Magistrate Judge any additional clarification, repetition, or ask questions and that he may consult with his attorney at any given time as to any issue.

Defendant expressed his understanding of the penalties prescribed by statute for the offenses as to which he was pleading guilty. The maximum statutory penalty for the offense to which the Defendant is pleading guilty is a term of imprisonment not to exceed ten (10) years, pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 924(a)(2); a fine not to exceed two hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($250,000.00), pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 3571(b)(3); a term of supervised release of no more than three (3) years, pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 3583(b)(2); and a Special Monetary Assessment of one hundred dollars ($100.00), pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 3013(a)(2)(A).

Defendant agrees to pay a special monetary assessment of one hundred dollars ($100.00), per count of conviction, to be deposited in the Crime Victim Fund, pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 3013(a)(2)(A).

Having ascertained directly from Defendant that he had not been induced in any way to plead guilty, that no one had forced him in any way to plead guilty, nor that he had been offered any reward or any other thing of value to get him to plead guilty, the document entitled “Plea and Forfeiture Agreement (Pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 11(c)(1)(C))” (“the Agreement”) and the “Plea Agreement Supplement”² were shown to Defendant, verifying his signature and initials on each and every page.

Pursuant to paragraph number Six of the Agreement, the undersigned apprised Defendant of the Rule 11(c)(1)(C) Warnings. The Defendant is aware that acceptance of this Plea and Forfeiture Agreement is within the sound discretion of the sentencing judge and of the advisory nature of the Guidelines, including the Guidelines Policy Statements, Application and Background Notes. Further, the Defendant understands and acknowledges that the Court is not a party to this Plea and Forfeiture Agreement and thus, is not bound by this agreement, its sentencing calculations, or recommendations. The Defendant is aware that the Court may accept or reject this agreement, or may defer its decision whether to accept or reject this agreement until it has considered the pre-sentence investigation report. See Fed. R. Crim. P. 11(c)(3)(A). If the court accepts this agreement, it will inform the Defendant that the agreement is of the type specified by Rule 11(c)(1)(C) and the agreed disposition in the judgment. See Fed. R. Crim. P. 11(c)(4). If the court rejects the agreement, the Defendant will be informed that the court is not required to follow the agreement, given an opportunity to withdraw the plea, and advised that if the plea is not withdrawn, the court may dispose of the case less favorably toward the Defendant than the agreement contemplated. See Fed. R. Crim. O. 11(c)(5)(A)-(C). Further, should the court reject the sentencing recommendation set forth in this agreement, The United States reserves the right to withdraw from its obligations under the same.

The above-captioned parties' estimate an agreement that appears on page four (4), paragraph seven (7) of the Agreement, regarding the possible applicable advisory Sentencing Guidelines, were further elaborated and explained. As to Count One, the base offense level shall be of thirty eight (38), pursuant to USSG §§2K2.1(c)(1)(B), 2A1.2(a). It should be noted that USSG §2K2.1(c)(1)(B) makes a cross-reference to the homicide guideline which is §2A1.2(a), second degree murder. Defendant has a state conviction which is relevant conduct. A decrease of three (3) levels is agreed for acceptance of responsibility, pursuant to USSG §3E1.1(a)-(b). Therefore, the total adjusted offense level is of thirty five (35). The parties do not stipulate as to any Defendant's criminal history category for the Defendant.

The parties agree jointly to recommend a sentence of one hundred twenty months (120) months, which represents the statutory maximum sentence this Court may impose.

Report and Recommendation

The Defendant agrees that the sentencing recommendation set forth herein is reasonable pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 3553(a).

The United States and the Defendant agree that no further adjustment or departures to the Defendant's total adjusted base offense level and no variance sentence under Title 18, United States Code, Section 3553, shall be sought. The parties further agree that any request by Defendant for an adjustment or departure will be considered a material breach of this Plea and Forfeiture Agreement, and the United States will be free to ask for any sentence, either guideline or statutory.

Pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 924(d)(1) and Title 28, United States Code, Section 2461(c), the Defendant agrees to forfeit all of his right, title, and interest in the following property (hereafter, collectively, the "Property"): a model PX4, 9mm Beretta pistol bearing serial number PX49600; an AK-47 rifle bearing serial number IK372423; and twenty-five rounds of ammunition. The Defendant acknowledges that he possessed the Property in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 922(g)(1), as set forth in Count One of the Indictment, and that the property is therefore subject to forfeiture to the United states pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 924(d)(1) and Title 28, United States Code, Section 2461(c).

As part of the written Agreement, the Government, the Defendant, and his counsel also agreed they are aware that the Sentencing Guidelines are no longer mandatory and are thus considered advisory.

The Government presented to this Magistrate Judge and to Defendant, assisted by his counsel, a summary of the basis in fact for the offenses charged and the evidence the Government had available to establish, in the event Defendant had elected to go to trial, the commission of the offense, beyond a reasonable doubt. Counsel and Defendant acknowledged the evidence of the Government was fully disclosed to them and previously discussed between the two. Defendant was also read and shown a document entitled “Stipulation of Facts”, which had been signed by Defendant and his counsel and is attached to the Agreement, wherein the signature of counsel for the Government also appears. Defendant was able to understand the explanation and agreed with the Government’s submission.

Defendant was explained that the Agreement with the Government does not bind any other district, except the district of Puerto Rico, and it contained all the promises, terms and conditions which Defendant, his attorney and the Government, have entered.

Having once more ascertained that Defendant has indicated not being induced to plead guilty, and was entering such a plea because in fact he is guilty, without any promises or predictions being made as to the sentence to be imposed by the court, Defendant was informed that parole has been abolished under the Advisory Sentencing Reform Act and that any sentence of imprisonment would be served, without him being released on parole. Defendant was additionally informed that prior to sentence, the sentencing judge will have a pre-sentence report and that it would be made available to him, to his counsel and to the Government, so that they be allowed to correct or object to any information contained in said report which was not accurate.

Defendant was informed that he can appeal his conviction if he believes that his guilty plea was somehow unlawful or involuntary or if there is some other fundamental defect in the proceedings which was not waived by his guilty plea. Defendant was also informed that he has a statutory right to appeal his sentence under certain circumstances particularly if the sentence is contrary to law. With few exceptions, any notice of appeal must be filed within fourteen (14) days of judgment being entered in the case. Defendant was also apprised the right to appeal is subject to certain limitations allowed by law because his Plea and Forfeiture Agreement contains a waiver of appeal in paragraph ten (10) which was read to Defendant in open court. Defendant recognized having knowledge of the waiver of appeal, discussing the same with his counsel and understanding its consequences. Defense counsel acknowledged discussing the waiver of appeal and its consequences with his client.

Defendant waived the reading of the Indictment in open court because he is aware of its content, indicating he availed himself of the opportunity to further discuss same with his attorney and then he positively stated that what was contained in Count One was what he had done and to which he was pleading guilty during these proceedings. Thereafter, Defendant expressed in no uncertain terms that he agreed with the Government's evidence as to his participation in the offense. Thereupon, Defendant indicated he was pleading guilty to Count One of the Indictment in Criminal No. 14-664 (GAG).

This Magistrate Judge after having explained to the Defendant his rights, ascertaining that he was acting freely and voluntarily to the waiver of such rights and in his decision of pleading guilty, with full knowledge of the consequences thereof, and there being a basis in fact for such a plea, is recommending that a plea of guilty be entered as to Count One of the Indictment in Criminal No. 14-664 (GAG).

IT IS SO RECOMMENDED.

The sentencing hearing is set for May 2, 2017 at 9:00 am before Honorable Gustavo A. Gelpí, District Judge.

The parties have fourteen (14) days to file any objections to this report and recommendation. Amended Fed. R. Crim P. 59 (b)(2). See also Amended Local Rules. Failure to file same within the specified time waives the right to appeal this order. Henley Drilling Co. v. McGee, 36 F.3d 143, 150-151 (1st Cir. 1994); United States v.
